

Note: All Dates below begin during the first year of Creation. (Some scholars estimate that equals about 4004 B.C. on our current the Gregorian Calendar.)

Adam's Genealogy

GENEALOGY: ADAM TO JOSEPH

Although Noah was born 126 yrs after Adam died, all his ancestors, Seth thru Lamech Noah's Father—would have been familiar with Adam, personally—The Man God Created In HIS OWN IMAGE—and walked with God Face to Face. This is extremely important in Grasping the Story. They would have heard Adam's Testimony from His own lips—Sat down and had meals with Adam and Enoch, and Seth, and Methuselah, Lamech—All powerful prophetic men of God. They could have related directly to Noah, all Adam's Story—And each of their Own—Even Enoch's Story. This Relationship Time Frame greatly diminishes the chances for error, and mightily magnifies the reasonable validity factor of the Adam's Story—His Testimony..

No Other Record on earth has this caliber of carefully preserved, detailed information—an unbroken genealogy that has not changed for 1,000's of Years—from the First Man to commonly authenticated and accepted Recorded History. Nothing compares to this Text or even comes close. This is something one should expect if it was written under the direction of God.

Having lived for 100's of years together would make a much tighter knit family and much deeper and broader accountability than anything we could possibly comprehend in our modern world. They memorized each others

It includes scientific facts. It accurately predicts the future. It records events that are common to all nations. The Flood story alone is a universal Record preserved by hundreds of diverse ethnic groups across the globe. There are both internal and external records from archaeology and geology that verify the accuracy of this record, and support its premise and thesis. This record has stood the test of time, even though its Message has been attacked in every generation from the beginning.

This document stands alone in the annals of time proclaiming the story of the first man to be born, and extending the continued unbroken family story into our modern time of written history.

The deeper you dig into the evidence with an open and unbiased mind, the clearer the evidence becomes.

May Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Adam and Eve, Enoch, and all who long for His Kingdom to be established Here on Earth—May He bless your Wisdom and Understanding as you Seek to Know and Follow Him.

Notice how the numbers carry their own message. Lamech live—777, a most significant number in prophecy. 7 is the number of completion. Methuselah lived—969. The oldest man ever lived. A symbol of God's Patience, and reluctance to send destruction upon the earth. Noah lived 600, before the Flood. 6 is the number of man.

Enoch walked with God and was not... for God took him—one of two men who did not die in the OT—the other being Elijah. Genesis 5:24, 2 Kings 2:11

To Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided. Genesis 10

Methuselah, died in the year of the Flood, 1656 (the same year his great-great grandson was born—Arphaxad—one discrepancy in the math—see Genesis 11.11). His son, Lamech died 5 years earlier, at 777 years. Both have prophetic pictures tied to their lives. Both likely knew Adam personally. After Only 1656 years from The Creation of Earth—The People had corrupted themselves. Judgement came upon the evil the people had given themselves over to. They relied on their own understanding of their own Knowledge of Good and Evil to guide them. They rejected God's Word and Life to guide them. By rejecting God's Word, they by default, followed another leader—The Ruler of This Present Darkness, the king of Death, Disease, Sickness, and Destruction—the Fallen Angel—Lucifer. The Liar, Father of Lies, and the Murderer from the Beginning. Many similar ancient Flood Legends exist across the World.

Man's lifespan fell rapidly after the Flood. Possible cause: Losing the Cloud canopy that kept the earth protected from ultra violet rays, creating a greenhouse effect surrounding the globe, which allowed for topical garden foliage found in the north pole—also extra high oxygen levels—resulted in much greater health, and Longer Life Spans: 900+ yrs.

Notice how the Hebrew names themselves carry a prophetic message. Man (is) appointed mortal sorrow, (but) the blessed God shall come down teaching. His death shall bring (the) despairing comfort and rest.

Noah first descendant born after Adam's death. Lamech last to know Adam alive.

Eber, the source of the name Hebrew, was the last man to live past 400 years. He lived 464 years. His son and grandson both lived 239. Roughly half his age.

Abraham born 60 years before Noah died. They could have had table fellowship together. It seems his father Terah had the call to follow YHWH into the promised land, but stopped short. Gen. 11:31

“Know for certain that for 400 years your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own and that they will be enslaved and mistreated there. Genesis 15:13

“I will punish the nation they serve as slaves, and afterward they will come out with great possessions. You, however, will go to your ancestors in peace and be buried at a good old age. In the fourth generation your descendants will come back here, for the sin of the Amorites has not yet reached its full measure.” Genesis 15

Joseph foreshadowed the Life of Messiah:
1) Brothers hated without a cause. (Jealous/Cain)
2) They planned to kill him, 3) lied about it, but 4) Joseph became the ruler over them. 5) He forgave them, 6) because He knew God allowed it for the Salvation of Israel, 7) and other many people.

Genesis 10:25 (NIV) 25 Two sons were born to Eber: One was named Peleg, because in his time the earth was divided; his brother was named Joktan. [This could refer to the division of the languages at the Tower of Babel.]

And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. The length of Jacob's life was one 147 years. 147=17=130. 2106+130=2236. 2236+400=2636—that should be very near the time of Moses. (Genesis 47:28)

Most of the Prophets wrote to the Kings of Judah & Israel and surrounding nations, during the time of the Kings & Chronicles & Exile.

Jacob was 90 yo when Joseph was Born:
Joseph was 17, when sold into slavery by his brothers to Midianite merchants & slave traders. Joseph was 18, when he became Potiphar's Slave (guess)
Joseph spent 10 years serving Potiphar Family. Joseph was 28 in prison when He interpreted the butler/baker's dreams forgotten in prison for 2 more years.
Joseph was 30 yo when left prison, interpreted Pharaoh's Dream, and became 2nd in Command of Egypt. I find it interesting that they all talk about Joseph as “THE HEBREW” apparently Hebrew people were well known.
At the end of seven years of plenty, Joseph was 37.
Joseph was 38, when he met his brothers and imprisoned Simeon.
Joseph was 39, when he met Benjamin—and revealed himself.
Joseph was 40, when Jacob and family came to Goshen, and 57 years when Jacob died. Joseph lived in Egypt for 53 more years.
Jacob was 130 when he saw Joseph again. They had been separated for 23 years. Jacob lived in Egypt with Joseph for 17 years.
Joseph was 57 when Jacob blessed and prophesied over his children just before He died at 147 yo. Joseph lived another 70 years. (All these dates have been extrapolated from the text.) Joseph took Jacob to the cave at Machpelah, in Canaan.

Notice: Abraham was born only 290 years after the Flood. That's why Kings of Philistines and Egypt feared the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. That's why the Egyptians knew about the Hebrews even while Joseph was in Prison.

Shem, the Son of Noah: Out Lived Abraham, by 35 years. He was alive during Isaac, Jacob, and possibly Rueben's Lifetime.

Notice: How Adam and Noah's Lives span nearly 2000 Years. With 6,000 Years of Humanity—These Two Men's Lives Cover nearly 1/3 of ALL of IT!

Shem Lived longer than his son and grandson, and was alive for the next 12 Generations. He outlived Abraham's life span, and was definitely alive while Isaac and Jacob were getting started. He did not out live his great grandson—Eber, but was alive during most of Eber's life. Eber is where we get the name the Hebrews—which derived from Eber's name. Eber was surely alive when some of Israel's sons were being born. It is Strange we don't learn more about Shem or Eber in the Torah.

Some events of Shem, Noah, Nimrod, Abraham, are referenced in the Book of Jasher, but upon reading the Book, I copied from the internet, it doesn't pass the smell taste for a scriptural book. Nor does the Book of Enoch. There is no telling where our current copies come from.

There are two references to Jasher in the OT, and one reference to Enoch in the NT (Jude)

“So the sun stood still, And the moon stopped, Till the people had revenge Upon their enemies. Is this not written in the Book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and did not hasten to go down for about a whole day.” (Jos 10:13)

Then David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son, and he told them to teach the children of Judah the Song of the Bow; indeed it is written in the Book of Jasher. (2Sa 1:17-18)

Jude 1:14-15 (HCSB) “And Enoch, in the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied about them: Look! The Lord comes with thousands of His holy ones to execute judgment on all and to convict them of all their ungodly acts that they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things ungodly sinners have said against Him.”
